

TRIBAL CHILD CARE

Soaring to Excellence for Children and Families

The National Indian Child Care Association invites over 300 Tribal Child Care Administrators and Staff to Tuscany Hotel and Casino in beautiful Las Vegas, Nevada, August 24 - 26, 2011 for the national conference.

PLEASE JOIN US!

Don't miss this wonderful 3-day opportunity to join colleagues from across the country. It is with great pleasure that we, the National Indian Child Care Association, invite you to attend the 2011 Annual NICCA Conference and participate in our opening ceremonies, workshops, tribal child care center tours, cultural activities and guest speakers.

WHY?

- This invitation is on behalf of the many tribal communities throughout the nation and direct representation from the tribal communities within the states of Nevada, Arizona and California.
- This special three-day conference will address issues that affect children in our tribal communities as it relates to child care, such as; partnerships, classroom practices, health and safety, program administration, cultural activities and advocacy.
- This conference promises to be unique and unforgettable; from the diversely educated and professional workshop speakers, guest speakers, tribal child care tour, cultural entertainment, tribal child care tour, to the poolside PIRATE themed networking party. NICCA will provide you with a highly enjoyable interactive learning experience.
